There will be thirteen events for the individual athletes and three relay races, one for second teams, one open to all senior relay quartets, and the third for the championship of Montgomery County. The fight in the latter event for county honor and distinction promises to be one of the most fiercely contested in the long series. Just now the Silver Spring team, that made such a thrilling finish last year, looks like the winner, but Washington Grove will have more than a fighting chance. Rockville and Gaithers-
